

2020 IGBRR ALL-INDIANA ELITE 80 SHOWCASE RECAP

Eighty of Indiana's top girls high school basketball prospects participated in the invitation only IGBRR All-Indiana Showcase on Sunday August 16th at the Noblesville Boys & Girls Club. The showcase included players from four different classes (10) 2021s, (30) 2022s, (30) 2023s, (10) 2024s. The underclass included most of top prospects within their classes. The uncommitted 2021 class included 10 of the class's top 100 players that played in front of NAIA/D3 college coaches that were recruiting them.

The event started with an hour of station work. The participants rotated between four station including several skill training stations and a sports performance workout. The next three hours of the event included two sixty-minute running clock games from each squad. The showcase teams were coached by some of the top trainers in Indiana. The event concluded with the naming of the All-Indiana Showcase Team as voted by the event's coaches and evaluators. Team rosters, participant list, and game action are all available at IGBRR.COM and IGBRR TV YouTube Channel. For additional coverage follow the Twitter hash tag #AIS20. Following are just a few of the highlight throughout the event.

All-Indiana Showcase Teams

2021 AIS Class

Addyson Kent

5'6 CG Jennings County

Addyson is known for her long distance shooting and holds multiple school records in that category, including the 80 she hit in a single season last year. While she hit six triples in her two games it was her energy and grit on both ends that seperated her and allowed her to be named to the All-Showcase Team by the AIS staff. She had a 14 point game for Team Maroon in game one.

Paige Ledford

6'0 PF Jac-Cen-Del

Paige is coming off a summer of high-level play. She is versatile with her size and ability to score it at all levels with a soft lefty touch. She has a high motor, constantly making herself available to ball, and plays with a physicality on both ends. She averaged a double-double as a junior. She put up 15 points in game two for her Team Red.

Peyton Murphy

5'10 SF Evansville Memorial

Peyton has the ability to make a big impact for her team without having to have the ball in her hands. She is gritty on both ends, will save possessions with her motor, goes to the boards, and will play physical. Add that to her length and solid skill set from the wing and she is a very versatile prospect. Her energy and leadership helped her stand out, as she was named to the All-Showcase Team by the AIS coaches. She had 13 pts in her Team Gold's game one win.

Delane Sheets

5'7 SG Carroll

Delane is a very cerebral player that sees the play developing and is able to deliver the pass or get herself in position for a high quality shot. She can handle it some from the backcourt and is able to keep the defense at bay with her ability to mix it up with an efficient jumper or an occasional attack. She had a very solid day shooting the ball at AIS, which included a 18pt game in her Team Black's game two win.

2022 AIS Class

Gloria Brewer

5'7 CG Homeschool

We were excited to get Gloria in the gym at AIS since many were not familiar with her coming from a homeschool basketball program. She is known as a prolific scorer within those ranks and she proved that her talent transitions to the big stage. She gets shots off with a quick release and can create her own space and opportunities. She displayed a good feel for the action and made plays on both ends. She had 18pts in the Team Purple's second game.

Jessica Carrothers

5'8 PG Crown Point

Jessica is a known commodity as one of the top backcourt prospects in her class and plays and competes at the highest level. She shows a high-level IQ from the point, has a crafty game with the ball and can flat out put it in the basket in a variety of ways. She was a consistent high performer throughout the day, which included games of 21 and 13 points in her teams wins.

Rayah Kincer

5'9 CG Franklin Central

Rayah is coming off a summer where she gained a lot momentum. She is a big physical guard with a good amount of athleticism and solid skill set. She can play downhill to the rim and shows a solid mid-range game. She is going to compete on both ends and is a tough matchup with her combination of size and ball skills. She had 18 points in her Team Blue's game one win.

Koryn Greiwe

5'7 CG Columbus East

Koryn is among the elite scorers in her class going into her junior season. She displays the ability to score it at all levels with a physical down hill game, can knock down the three with range and gets to shots in the mid-range. She is a tireless worker that has a gritty determined game. She put up the biggest game at AIS with a 31 point effort after scoring 21 in game one.

Teresa Maggio 5'5 PG McCutcheon

Teresa has a high energy skilled game that allows her to make plays all over the floor from baseline to baseline. She can score it in a variety of ways including the deep three ball or getting to the rim, She sees the floor well while on the move and delivers the ball with precision. She is a pick pocket on defense with quick hands and feet that lead to transition points. She shined throughout the day, which included two big games of 27 and 23 points. IUPUI commit

Jaelynn Murray 5'11 SF Pike

Jaelynn's potential has really started to transition into production over the last twelve months. She has always been a good spot up shooter from the three-point line but the development of her game with the ball in her hands on the move has started to add a lot of versatility to her game. As sophomore she had to shoulder a good deal of the load on a young Pike team which grew her game. She had an outstanding effort throughout the day, which included 24 point and 14 point games.

Jozee Rhodes 6'0 PF Plainfield

It has only been a year since Jozee started her return from a knee injury and after working her way back through the high school season she had a breakout summer. In some respects, she has not only got back to where she was but has surpassed that with her versatility with ball. She is comfortable with the ball in the open court or on the perimeter and has consistently stretched out her game and is playing with both physicality and finesse. She was once again outstanding in both drills and games, which included games of 16 and 14 points.

Zoe Stewart 5'9 CG Terre Haute North

Zoe has had a breakout year that carried through the summer and right into AIS. She is an athletic and skilled combo that has the tools to create her own shots and make plays on both ends of the floor. She has a deadly mid-range pullup and can get downhill to rim where she finishes with athleticism. Her skilled play and ability to lead her team in scoring secured her a spot on the All-Showcase Team. She had games of 21pts and 14pts.

Tanyuel Welch

5'10 PG North Central

Tanyuel is one of the most dynamic point guards in her class. Elite level athleticism with a high level skill set make her a walking bucket. She displays the ability to score it at all levels and excels at breaking down defenders off the bounce and making plays going to the rim. She is now a two-time All-Showcase selection after earning a spot on the team for a second straight year. She had another big day at the showcase with games of 28 points and 14 points.

Ellie Wilkerson

5'9 CG Plainfield

Ellie has one of the most versatile tool sets in her class. She has a big strong frame from the backcourt that allows her to punish defenders on the way to the basket or even post up her matchups. She also can knock down jumpers at all levels with deep range. Those tools along with her size, athleticism and bulldog mentality make her a nightmare matchup. Once again, she rose to the top against the state's elite, including a 17 point game for her Gold team.

2023 AIS Class

Ashlynn Brooke 5'6 PG Pioneer

Ashlynn came back at the beginning of the year from a knee injury and has progressively returned to her explosive game since. After a state runner-up finish, she rode that momentum into a tremendous summer. She has the ability to score the ball in a variety of ways, has an advanced skill set with high end athleticism and an incredible feel for the game. She was named to the All-Showcase team after having a tremendous day with games of 23 points and 21 points.

Taylor Farris 5'9 SG Northeastern

Taylor may be a bit under the radar playing small school ball in eastern Indiana and on the summer circuit for an Ohio program but make no mistake she is among the elite in her class and showed that at AIS with games of 28 points & 17 points. She has a strong backcourt frame and shows versatility with a developed skill set, athleticism, & size. She can knock down jumpers, can post up smaller matchups and makes plays on both ends with her instincts and tools.

Abby Fleetwood 5'9 PG Brown County

Abby is a bit of a swiss army knife from the backcourt, she is going to play with a high motor, make plays with her instincts and doesn't need to be shooting the ball to make an impact on the floor. While she has a skilled game and can score it, she showed her value setting up teammates, playing with energy on both ends, and being a floor leader, which led to her selection to the All-Indiana Showcase team.

Nevaeh Foster 5'8 G Mishawaka Marian

Nevaeh is a dynamic and skilled scorer, that is a threat with the ball in her hands at all times. She will get downhill going to the basket, scoring it in a variety of crafty ways and can knock down the open jumper if you back off. She shows good instincts on both ends and has an aggressive game with the ball. She was named to the All-Showcase team, having a big day including a 24 point game for her Team Gold.

Ashlynn Shade

5'9 G Noblesville

Ashlynn is not only the top prospect in her Indiana class, she is among the elite nationally in her 23' class. She has a high-level skill set with elite athleticism, a non stop motor and exceptional instincts for the action. She can score it in a variety of ways at all levels. She once again was selected to the All-Showcase team after a productive day, including 22 point & 21 point games.

Alison Stephens

5'10 SF Homestead

Alison has a combination of size, a great motor, and the ability to knock down the long ball in bunches. She did just that at AIS, connecting on nine three pointers across her two games. She stays active on both ends, will play physical and has the size and skill set to bring versatility and create mismatches. As she continues to grow her game going to the rim, she reminds you a lot of former teammate and Indiana All-Star Sydney Graber.

2024 AIS Class

Ellery Minch

6'2

Mt. Vernon

Ellery has a long frame with a tremendous wingspan and shows a great deal of skill from the perimeter. She is known for her ability to knock down the three and get off shots with her length, but she opened some eyes with her skilled play on the move. She probably has much upside as any prospect in her class with her size and skill set. As she continues to add strength, she has the potential to blossom into one of the most productive prospects in the 24' class. She had a tremendous day at AIS with two 16 point games.

Jordyn Poole

5'5 PG Ft Wayne Snider

Jordyn is one of the top dynamic playmaking point guards in the 24' class. She possesses a high level of athleticism, a shifty explosive handle, and the ability to make plays going to the basket with her physical and ball skill tools. She showed very well against some of the state's top guards, including a 14 point effort in Team Maroon's first game.

Chloe Spreen

5'9 PG Bedford North Lawrence

Chloe created a tremendous amount of buzz with her skilled & confident play at AIS. She is coming off a summer where she played at the highest level against the nation's elite HS players before even playing a HS game herself. She has a tremendous skillset with good size & instincts from the backcourt. She was selected to the All-Showcase team for her skilled play. She was also selected to the Blue Star 30 later in the day recognizing her as one of the nations elite in her class.

Reagan Wilson

5'6 PG Noblesville

Reagan's energy and leadership at such a young age did not go unnoticed by several members of the AIS coaching staff. She played with a high motor throughout the drills and games, was an enthusiastic teammate and elevated her team's play with her skilled and cerebral play. Reagan was named to the All-Showcase team by the coaches.
