MADISON DALTON W Logansport

Selected to the All-Showcase Team by the coaches. Madison may have created the biggest buzz of any senior in the gym, with her long distance shooting. Not only did she knock down five threes in her showcase court game but hit more triples than any prospect during the event. Solid 5'10 frame, a noted 3 point shooter, plays an intelligent game and does a good job of using her length to rebound from the wing spot. JR HS Stats 11PPG 7RPG

TAYLOR DRURY F Eastern Pekin

Taylor played a big part in Team Orange's undefeated day. She produced offensively with a nice skill set and athleticism, while also doing a lot of the dirty of work of going to the boards hard and defending taller post players effectively. Taylor is an under recruited senior that has produced at the high school and grassroots levels and proved once again that she can compete against the highest level prospects. JR HS Stats 18PPG 11RPG

AUDREY MINIX G North White

Another member of the undefeated Team Orange, that made strong contributions throughout the day. Audrey was steady on both ends and consistent throughout the event. Strong 5'10 frame with the ability to play and defend multiple spots. She scores the ball in multiple ways, from the 3 point line to operating around the basket. High IQ player that rebounds the ball very well from the backcourt. JR HS Stats 20PPG 13RPG

CLAIRE RAUCK SG Providence

A well respected shooter in the 2017 class that uses her savvy and babll IQ to get herself scoring opportunities and to the line. Can handle when needed, moves well off the ball and while a noted shooter doesn't mind playing physical around the basket. She was consistent throughout her four games, making the most of her touches, scoring, getting teammates involved and valuing possessions. JR HS Stats 14PPG 4RPG

KATLYN GILBERT G Heritage Christian

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team by the coaches. Kate's skill and athleticism was on display throughout the event. Not only recognized as one of the top prospects in the Indiana 2018 class but also one of the top 2018s nationally. Long frame with superior skill set and athleticism make her one of the more versatile guards in the country. Has multiple high D1 offers.

KAYANA TRAYLOR G Martinsville

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team by the coaches. Kayana is another Indiana 2018 that is a nationally recognized prospect, that has already committed to Purdue University. She put up the second biggest single game output of the day with a 19 point game on the showcase court. Lightning quick lefty, that is hard to contain off the bounce. Creates with skill and athleticism for herself and teammates. Multiple high D1 offers, Purdue University commit.

LEIGHA BROWN G DeKalb

Leigha was a steady performer throughout the event, being productive with her touches and opportunities. Long strong 6'1 guard frame with versatile offensive skill set. She can shoot the deep three, has a nice pull up mid-range jumper and is able to finish going to the basket against smaller matchups. Leigha had a tremendous spring/summer on the grassroots tour and has positioned herself among the elite in her class. Multiple D1 offers

MYA SCHEIDT PG Crown Point

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team by the coaches. Was a strong performer for the undefeated Team Orange. Handling, creating for teammates, while getting hers including a 15 point game. Mya is a little bit under the radar when compared to some of the others in 2018 guard strong class but she proved her invite to the showcase was well deserved. A high motor true point guard that can handle against pressure, good court vision allows her to set the table but as demonstrated can score with skill when needed.

JENASAE BISHOP G East Chicago Central

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team by the coaches. Another versatile guard in the 2018 class. Has the handles and confidence to run the point and the athleticism and skill set to play and defend multiple spots on the floor. A true scorer that is able to create opportunities off the bounce going to the rim and a capable jumper. Multiple D1 offers

RIKKI HARRIS

G North Central

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team. Rikki is one the most natural and fluid scorers in the state regardless of class. Her 5'10 length along with superior athleticism make her a versatile as the come on both ends of the court. Particularly dangerous off the bounce and difficult to handle once she gets into the paint. Had a very effective grassroots season and carried it over to showcase as well. Multiple D1 offers.

CARISSA GARCIA PG FTW Concordia

If there was an 11th spot on the All-Showcase team, Carissa had to be on the short list. Only ten spots but likes others she was deserving. She had a big day from start to finish, working hard and smart as always. Not only did she put up two of the biggest games with 18 & 20 point performances, she was dropping her share of dimes as well. A true point with exceptional handles, good decisions making with the ball, and as noted a very capable scorer. D1 offer.

EMMA NOLAN W Marquette Catholic

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team. 6'1 top of the class prospect with a versatile skill set. While the Nolan twins have very similar skill sets, Emma does a little more of her work around the basket on both ends. Plays physical in the paint, rebounds well, blocks shots. Very capable from the wing, comfortable with the ball and can knock down the jumper including the three. Multiple D1 offers

SOPHIA NOLAN W Marquette Catholic

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team. Simply as versatile as they come with all the tools as a top prospect in the 2019 class. A 6'1 solid frame, that is comfortable with the ball in the open court and on the wing, knocks down jumpers out to the 3 and able to play in the paint as well. Used that versatility throughout her contest to be the dominate player on the floor for her squad. Multiple D1 offers

HALEY SWING

W Homestead

Has had a solid skill set for her frame for a while but now becoming more aggressive, fluid and confident in using her bball and physical tools. Comfortable and skilled player with the ball from the wing but starting to blossom with her ability to operate going to and at the basket with strength, footwork and finishing ability. Rebounding and defending at a high level as well.

ADDISYN BLACKWELL PG Bloomington South

A hard noised true point with a high motor. Had a solid day, including the biggest single game point performance with a 24 point effort in roughly 16 minutes of work. Does a good job of making decisions with the ball, valuing possessions and pushing the ball in transition with vision. D1 offer

JORIE ALLEN W Bedford North Lawrence

Jorie is one of the top prospects in the 2019 class and is coming off a very nice high school season at 4A powerhouse BNL. She missed some time during the summer and isn't completely back but it wasn't evident at the showcase as she performed at a high level for her squad. She has a strong forward frame that is combined with guard skills. Can handle with confidence in the open court, works aggressively with power around the basket and demonstrates a high bball iq and smooth feel for the game. Multiple high D1 offers

SYDNEY FREEMAN PG Central Noble

G

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team. Sydney is coming off a very productive grassroots season and quickly becoming regarded as one of the top true point prospects in the 2019 class. Excels at making solid decisions with the ball, facilitating and setting the table for teammates and demonstrates she has a very capable scoring skill set when called on. Helped lead her Team Orange to a 4-0 record for the day, controlling tempo, feeding teammates while get her share. D1 offer.

2020

SYDNEY PARRISH

Hamilton Southeastern

Selected as a member of the All-Showcase Team. Sydney is considered one of the top incoming frosh in the state and already recognized nationally in her 2020 class. A long 6'1 guard that has a skill set beyond her years, a high basketball IQ and an competitive motor to go with it. She performed at a high level throughout the day against older D1 talent, having multiple contest that she scored double digits in. High D1 offers.

RACHEL LOOBIE W Franklin Central

We have written Rachel up a couple times over the summer and she didn't disappoint at the showcase. She had a strong showing for the 4-0 Team Orange scoring in double digits multiple games. Another long 5'11 skilled incoming frosh that is versatile on both ends. Capable of knocking down the three, operating with skill and athleticism around the basket and uses her instincts, length, and athleticism to cause havoc on the defensive end. Has all the tools to be a star in the 2020 class.

MADISON WEBB F/C Bedford North Lawrence

Madison played up on a strong 2019 squad during the grassroots season. She has a big strong 6'2 post frame and demonstrates good touch and footwork around the basket. She separates herself with her ability to stretch the floor with her consistent effective 3 point shooting ability. Madison was solid contributor throughout the event, scoring in double digits in multiple contest. One of the top 2020 post prospects to keep an eye on.

SYDNEY GRABER F/W

Sydney was another 2020 that had a strong showing at the showcase. A 6'0 lefty wing with a forward frame that shot the ball very well from beyond the arch. Demonstrated the ability to handle the ball in the open court and created her own shot off the bounce against aggressive closeouts. Nice combination of size, skill, and agility.
