

2017 IBCA Underclassman Showcase

Indianapolis, IN

July 11th, 2017

The 15th annual IBCA Underclass Showcase was held at Ben Davis High School on July 11th. The showcase was comprised of nearly 80 Indiana prospects who competed in both station skill work and several games throughout the afternoon. The showcase was missing many notable prospects who were with their club teams during the D1 viewing period but there was plenty of talent to go around. Following are a few of those prospects that stood out and demonstrated consistent play during our viewing at the event.

2018 Erika Foy 5'11 W Mississinewa Flight

Combination of size, skill and versatility. Erika had a nice day from start to finish during our viewing. Showed versatile skill set in both drills and games. Owned her space with a physical presence and played a fluid outside/inside style while making good decisions with the ball.

2018 Payton Moore 5'10 F Tri Flight

Payton is a great athlete and a multiple sport star. Her athleticism is what will catch your eye on first view. Gets off the floor well, along with good feet speed allows her to defend multiple spots and go to the boards against frontliners. Has a solid overall skill set with room to grow. Competed and held her own against high level talent.

2018 Anna Newman 5'3 PG Evansville North IE Swish

Anna is simply a fun prospect to watch. A bit undersized at 5'3 but there is a reason she has multiple D1 offers. She is consistently making plays all over the floor. Plays with an extremely high motor, high skill set and IQ to compliment. Can score at all three levels and knows how to get her teammates opportunities. Multiple D1 offers

2018 Meghan Urbanski 5'6 G Mishawaka Marion SDE

Meghan showcased her skill set along with her experience and ability to create in an unstructured game. She was able to get the rim on a consistent basis, created space and opportunities for both herself and teammates off the bounce. Demonstrated instincts on both ends and played physical and confident with the ball

2018 Abby Wahl 6'1 F Heritage Hills IE Swish

Competes around the hoop and understands how to both work smart and hard. Abby has good hands and feet and is efficient on her touches. She is able to rebound the ball outside of her area, and has the lateral quickness to extend defensive pressure. Eastern Illinois D1 commit.

2019 Taylor Boruff 5'10 G Northwestern Flight

Taylor thrives in these type of events with her ability to create and crafty ball skills. Able to use her feel for the game and skill set to create space and scoring opportunities for herself and teammates. Scored at all three levels, while also setting up others in both transition and half court. Rebounded well from the guard spot and got her hands on a lot of balls on the defensive end. D1 offer

2019 Madison Jones 5'7 PG Western Boone Gym Rats

High energy, waterbug that seems to be everywhere. Solid skill with the ball using combination of quickness, handles, and feel to get to the rim and make plays by finishing or finding the interior pass. Uses quick feet and hands to apply on ball pressure and knack for busting passing lanes.

2020 Katie Davidson 5'10 F Lawrence North Best Choice

5'11 with a strong frame that shows a nice versatile outside/inside game. Physical presence with the ball whether attacking from the wing or operating around the block. Has the athleticism and size to defend multiple spots. Rebounded and pushed in transition, attacking and scoring from all levels.

2020 Keegan Sullivan 6'0 G South Bend St. Joe SDE

High level youngster that was dominate at times during our viewing. Possess the lethal combination of size, skill, poise and confidence. At 6' with a solid frame, Keegan is a difficult matchup in that she has the skill set to take most off the bounce with a physical presence and length to finish, while posting smaller opponents. Can defend multiple spots and goes to the boards against most. Multiple D1 offers
