

Eighty of Indiana's top girls high school basketball prospects participated in the invitation only IGBRR All-Indiana Showcase on Sunday August 27th in Noblesville, Indiana. The showcase included players from four different classes (16) 2018s, (24) 2019s, (24) 2020s, (16) 2021s. The participants included 26 six footers and several top 10 prospects within their classes. The uncommitted 2018 class included 16 of the class's top 100 players that brought in over 20 NAIA/D3 college coaches to the event.

The event started with a hour of station work. The participants rotated between five station including several skill training stations, media photo shoot, and a sports performance workout with Acceleration Indiana. The next three hours of the event included four 30 minute running clock games from each squad. The showcase teams were coached by some of the top high school coaches and trainers in Indiana. The event concluded with the naming of the All-Indiana Showcase Team as voted by the event's coaches and evaluators. Team rosters, participant list, and live stream archive of Court 3 action are all available at IGBRR.COM. Following are just a few of the participants that stood out throughout the event.

2018

Toni Grace 5'7 PG Fishers

Toni was solid all day with the ball in her hands. Made good decisions in both transition and half court. Showed the ability to use her athleticism and skill to get to the rim, along with the court vision and awareness to setup teammates. Good instincts defensively with the foot speed and quick hands to be a disruptive on ball defender. Averaged 14.6ppg her junior season and was named All-Conference.

Lauryn Helton 6'0 W East Central

Lauryn is long and can shoot the rock. She demonstrated her ability to setup and knock down the open 3 throughout the event. Showed some deep range and worked off the ball to get space for her jumpers. Has progressively looked stronger and smoother each view in the last 6 months since returning from a knee injury. Uses length effectively on the defensive end, to rebound from the wing spot and to get off contested spot ups. Averaged 9PPG 4RPG 3APG as a sophomore, limited play as junior due to injury.

Addie Rund 5'4 PG Indian Creek

Addie is a high motor true point that makes plays from baseline to baseline. She is fearless going to the rim despite her 5'4 guard size and can knock down the three. Pushes the ball and shows good court vision and decisions making in transition. Averaged 14.5ppg her junior season and was named All-Conference.

Meghan Urbanski 5'7 PG Mishawaka Marian

Meghan stood out in several aspects, including both her command of the floor with the ball and her leadership. She is fearless going to the rim and has the skill to hurt you from all three levels. Aggressive in all aspects of her game, with good anticipation on both ends. Played strong with the ball and made good decisions in both open court transition and tight interior reads. Averaged 17ppg her junior season and was named All-Conference.

2019

Grace Hale 6'2 F Floyd Central

Grace was a major stock riser on the club circuit this year. Her combination of a strong frontline frame, athleticism and aggressive play has positioned her as one the top center/forward prospects in the 2019 class. Good feet and hands with the ability to finish with elevation and strength. Capable of knocking down the 15 footer, with solid finishing ability from mid post. Defensively disruptive with her physical attributes.

Madison Jones 5'9 PG Western Boone

Madison's energy and fast play was electric all day. Combination of skill, motor and confidence allowed her to stand out in this crowd of talent. She controlled tempo, showed versatility in the ways she scored the ball and made plays all over the floor. Aggressive mindset on both ends, tough competitor and vocal leader. Selected to All-Showcase team.

Morgan Litwiller 5'11 F Northridge

Morgan is a strong frontline competitor that shows good feet and finishing ability around the basket. Has the ability to stretch it out to the three point line and comfortable putting it on the floor. Aggressive to boards and uses strong frame to play physical on both ends. Selected to the All-Showcase Team.

Maddie Nolan 5'10 G Zionsville

Top 10 prospect in the 2019 class, Maddie has a high level skill set with a natural feel for the game. Crafty and fluid with the ball, she can score it all three levels at a high proficiency. Creates space with and without the ball and shows high sense of court awareness. Good anticipation on the defensive end. Selected to the All-Showcase Team. Has multiple D1 offers

Haley Swing 6'0 F Homestead

Haley is a tough competitor with solid skill set to compliment. Simply outworks her competition time and again around the basket. She is aggressive with ball going to the rim, pursuing boards and defensively. Continued improvement with her footwork and ability to finish multiple ways has brought her offensive game to a higher level. Selected to the All-Showcase Team. Has multiple D1 offers.

E.Scaggs 5'10 W Mooresville

A versatile wing that has ability to score at all three levels effectively. High level shooter from the three point line but has the skill set and frame to put the ball on the floor and play physical going to the rim. Good instincts for the game on both ends and rebounds at high level. Capable of playing and defending multiple spots.

2020

Kendall Bostic 6'1 F Northwestern

One of the top frontlines in the 2020 class, with combination of a strong broad shoulder frame and solid skills. Kendall plays a physical game at the rim but has the touch and confidence to face up and make plays from the elbow. Excellent passer out of the post and has the strength and know how to root out defenders in the paint for position. Has multiple D1 offers.

Ella Collier 5'11 W Danville

One of the biggest stock risers in the 2020 class this club season. Long crafty scorer with solid skills and good feel for the game. Knows how to get buckets and shows versatility and ability to score at all levels. Uses length in all areas of her game and shows good instincts on both ends. Most effective on the wing but skill and frame to slide around into other spots. Was second leading scorer at the Showcase. Selected to All-Showcase Team.

Sydney Graber 6'1 W Homestead

6'1 lefty with a sweet stroke from behind the line. Sydney has strong forward frame with guard skills. She has ability to attack the basket off the dribble, finishing with that skill and size. Playing a more physical game on both ends has added to her already versatile game. Rebounds well and has good court awareness. Multiple D1 offers.

Madison Layden 6'1 G Northwestern

6'1 top of the class guard with skill, pose, and size. Operates at the point efficiently with ability to create her own or get looks for teammates. Shoots the three well, values the ball and shows good feel for the game on both ends. Can play and defend multiple spots with length and IQ. Selected to All-Showcase Team. Multiple D1 offers.

Maddie Lawrence 5'11 G Winchester

Very talented guard/wing that shows a versatile game with nice strong frame, athleticism, and skill to match. A little under the radar coming from eastern Indiana but have no doubt that she belongs among the elites in her 2020 class. Can play and defend multiple spots with her attributes. Excels at using strong frame and athleticism to get to the rim and finish with skill and creativity. Selected to All-Showcase Team.

Rachel Loobie 6'0 F Franklin Central

A physical frame with athleticism makes Rachel an effective scorer and rebounder on the front line. Top of the class 2020 prospect that has combination of size, athleticism and skill. Scores in bunches and multiple ways around the basket and rebounds at a high level as well. Athletically can defend multiple spots and excels at finishing around basket in transition. Selected to All-Showcase Team. Multiple D1 offers

Sydney Parrish 6'1 G Hamilton Southeastern

Sydney is not only a top of the class Indiana prospect but considered a top 2020 nationally. 6'1 frame with exceptional guard skills. Knock down shooter with the ability and size to put the ball on the floor and score in multiple ways going to the rim. Good instincts on both ends with a high motor. Led all prospects in scoring at the Showcase. Selected to All-Showcase Team. Has Multiple D1 offers.

Keegan Sullivan 6'0 G South Bend St Joseph

A great combination of skill, size and instincts. Keegan is a top of the class prospect that has been on the D1 radar for some time. Scores at a high level from all three levels and can slide around to multiple spots causing matchup nightmare. Shoots it well but best going downhill to the rim finishing in multiple ways with that size/skill combination. Good feel for the game on both ends and rebounds at a high level. Selected to All-Showcase Team. Multiple D1 offers

Lillian Frasure 5'10 G North Judson

We first saw Lillian last fall at our Futures Camp, where she impressed including coming away with the very competitive one on one championship. She was slowed by an injury most of the spring but really started to turn it on in July viewing. She did not disappoint at the showcase, leading all frosh in scoring. Crafty scorer that knows how to create and use space. Can score at all levels, along with nice feel and poise for a youngster.

Zakia Rasheed 5'9 G Avon

We have seen a lot of Zakia over the last year and one of the most impressive aspects is her consistency. She knows how to play to her strengths and is going to produce for her team. High skill frosh with athleticism, able to score the ball at all three levels. Good instincts on defense with ability to be disruptive both on the ball and in passing lanes.

Vanessa Shafford 5'9 W Linton Stockton

One thing is for certain, if you didn't know Vanessa before Sunday you do now. A lot of folks came away impressed with her play against the upperclassmen. Aggressive, hardnosed kid that makes plays. Skilled offensively, with a nose for the basket. Nice mid-range game and finishes going to the hoop. Rebounds against bigger opponents and can defend multiple spots.

Meg Newman 6'1 W North Central

Meg has all the tools to be a super star in the 2021 class. 6'1 wiry athletic frame, athleticism and guard skill set to compliment the package. She can play and defend several spots, shows versatility in her offensive game and can be a matchup nightmare. Uses length well both on the defensive end and attacking the basket on offense. She will have the opportunity to grow her game on a very competitive high school team in a power house conference.
