INDIANA HIGH SCHOOL
GIRLS BASKETBALL
PREVIEW

IGBRR 2018-19 Indiana High School Girls Basketball Preview

Indiana Girls Basketball Recruiting Report is entering its fifth season of covering and promoting Indiana Girls High School and grassroots basketball. This year also marks our 21st year of involvement in the girls game dating back to the original Fifth Quarter service and website. It is our goal to maximize the exposure of Indiana girls basketball and its players in a fair, consistent and accurate manner. While we have covered 37 teams and hundreds of prospects in this preview publication we realize there are many other teams and prospects that are deserving of the publicity and exposure. Feel free to reach out to us at any time through social media, email or phone to assist in sharing and promoting these team's & prospect's achievements throughout the year. Good luck on your journey this season and we hope to see you in the gym.

We would like to take a moment to also thank all of our partners, advertisers, and supporters. We would also like to thank all of the prospects, coaches, and parents who supported our events and projects this year. Through a collaborative effort it is our hope that we can support Indiana Girls High School basketball to its fullest.

Thank You,

1A Indiana High School Preview

Marquette Catholic was last year's preseason 1A #1 and went wire to wire in that spot going 27-2 and winning the State Championship. The State tournament is always difficult to navigate but expect to see a Blazers rematch against Vincennes Rivet that saw the title game decided in the final two minutes of the contest. The Blazers return four starters and 93% of their points, including First Team All-State selections Emma and Sophia Nolan. The Patriots return four starters and 93% of their scoring from their state runner-up team as well, including All-State selections Grace Waggoner and Tia Tolbert. Northfield & University bring back talent and experience from 18 win teams and will be contenders as well.

2017-18 Final Sagarin Rank: 22

2017-18 IGBRR Preseason: 1

2017-18 IGBRR Final Regular Season: 1

2017-18 Schedule Rank: 135

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2019 Emma Nolan 20.5 PPG

2019 Emma Nolan 7.9 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 93 %

Notable games: North Central (Nov3), Plainfield Tourney (Dec 29), @ SBSJ (Jan 15)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 49 Marquette Catholic have won the last 3 sectionals and will be heavy favorite to make it four in a row.

The Blazers won their first State Championship and return four starters and every point scored in the title game. Marquette Catholic returns 90 % of their offense from last year. Led by Indiana All-Star candidates (St John commits) 6'1 twins Emma Nolan 20.5 PPG & 8 RPG and Sophia Nolan 18.3 PPG & 7.6 RPG. Two other seniors who provide major contributions include guards Emery Joseph 5.7 APG and Morgan Crook 6.3 PPG & 3.4 APG. Senior C.Sayler and junior A.McConnell will provide depth. The 2019 class has led the Blazers to 72 wins over the last three seasons and are poised to continue with another run back to the state championship.

2019 6'1 Forward Emma Nolan

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2019 Grace Waggoner 20 PPG

2019 Grace Waggoner 10 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 93%

Notable games: @ North Know (Nov 15), @ Evansville Memorial (Dec 13), Linton Stockton (Jan 3)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 63 The Patriots are in line to win their fourth straight sectional and tenth in the last twelve.

Loogootee will be a serious contender as well.

2019 6'0 Wing Grace Waggoner

The Patriots were two minutes from their second state championship but fell 31-38. Returning 4 starters from that squad will make them the favorites to represent the South at Bankers Life Fieldhouse once again. One of the top combos in 1A return in Indiana All Star candidate 6'0 wing Grace Waggoner (Evansville commit) 20 PPG & 10 RPG and 5'10 Junior All Star candidate Tia Tolbert 14 PPG & 6.4 RPG. The Patriots will count on production from senior Molly Niehaus 6.4 PPG and junior Macee Hamilton who started on the state finals squad.

2017-18 Schedule Rank: 276

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2019 Ariel Dale 16.7 PPG

2019 Kelcie Thomson 6.2

Returning % of scoring: 100%

Notable games: @ Oak Hill (Nov 9), Tipton (Dec 12), Tippy Valley (Jan 3)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 54 Northfield hasn't won a Sectional since 1980, this could be the year they break through.

2019 5'6 Guard Ariel Dale

The Norsemen return their entire roster from a 18-6 campaign a year ago. They are led by 5'6 lefty guard and All-State selection Ariel Dale (Taylor commit), that put up 16.7 points a contest last year. Add backcourt mate Kelcie Thomson at 13.8 points and 6.2 rebounds a game. Up front is senior Ally Keaffaber 7 PPG and 5'11 Addi Baker is coming off a nice freshman season 7 PPG 5 RPG. Come tourney time Northfield will be a team to contend with.

#4

University Trailblazers

Coach Blanding

Conference Pioneer

Sectional 58

2017-18 Record: 18-8

2017-18 Final Sagarin Rank: 196

2017-18 IGBRR Preseason: 8

2017-18 IGBRR Final Regular Season: 13

2017-18 Schedule Rank: 358

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2020 Lindsey Syrek 18.5 PPG

2020 Lindsey Syrek 13.8 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 79%

Notable newcomers: Madi Sears (Carmel), Jenna Blakely (Homeschool)

Notable games: @ New Castle (Dec20), Monrovia Tourney (Dec 27), Tri-West (Jan 17)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 58 The Trailblazers won their first sectional since 2012 last year and will be heavy favorites to repeat.

2020 6'2 Forward Lindsey Syrek

The Trailblazers will have to replace sharpshooter Natlie Nickless but Carmel transfer Junior Maddi Sears goes a long way in doing that. Maddi who played significant minutes for 4A powerhouse Carmel is a deep ball threat and adds ball handling. Returning is Junior All-Star candidate forward Lindsey Syrek 18.5 PPG & 13.8 RPG (multiple D1 offers), veteran seniors Brooke Andrus 9.5 PPG & 5 APG, L.Snyder 8.4 PPG and J.McGuire who played limited games after returning from injury. Add another talent in Jenna Blakely (Homeschool) and the Trailblazers will start as a versatile lineup as any 1A team in the state.

#5

2017-18 Schedule Rank: 255

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2019 Tyanna Graber 14.1 PPG

2019 Brooklyn Jones 4.5 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 86%

Notable games: @ Columbus East (Dec1), @ Vincennes Rivet (Jan10), Linton Stockton (Jan 19)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 63 Lions will need to upset state runner-up Rivet to win their first sectional since 2005

2019 5'6 Guard Tyanna Graber

The Lions return most of the pieces from a successful 19-3 season, two of those losses at the hands of state runner-up Vincennes Rivet. They will need to replace the production of graduated forward Julianne Bell but return leading scorer 5'6 G Tyanna Graber 14.1 PPG. The Lions also return several sophomores that made a big splash as frosh last season including Brooklyn Jones 8.5 PPG 4.5 RPG, Kaela Fleming 6 PPG 3 RPG and MacKenzie Vanhoy.

2A Indiana High School Preview

Nearly all the top contenders in a loaded 2A class return their significant pieces including defending State Champion Central Noble. The Cougars feature the dynamic duo of Miss Basketball candidate Sydney Freeman and All-Star candidate Meleah Leatherman. Oak Hill returns nearly its entire squad that won 22 games and was in the State title game two years ago. Winchester the state runner-up returns their entire lineup and are healthy. Triton Central is deep and talented and last year's #1 Monroe Central brings back Indiana All-Star candidate Jordyn Barga and other talent. It will be another fun and exciting year in 2A once again.

2020 Taylor Westgate 9.6 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 83%

Notable games: Winchester (Nov 24), @ Northwestern (Jan 9)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 37 Oak Hill will be a strong favorite to three-peat as sectional champs.

Oak Hill returns 4 starters and 83% of their offensive scoring from a 27-3 Elite 8 team. Led by Junior All-Star candidate forward Taylor Westgate 13 PPG & 9.6 RPG. The Golden Eagles return a strong senior class as well that includes guards Janessa Hasty 11.4 PPG, Kaela Robey 9 PPG & 5.6 RPG, and wing Adrianna Trexler (Indiana Wesleyan commit) 7.4 PPG. The Golden Eagles will be able to draw on a lot of experience just two years removed from a state runner-up, and an elite 8 last year, which includes 69 victories over the last three seasons. It will be another tough road out of the north for the eventual state finals representative but Oak Hill is among the favorites.

The Golden Falcons return their entire starting five from their state runner-up squad. Led by Junior All-Star candidate Maddie Lawrence 19.4 PPG, 9 RPG, and 6'3 senior Kira Robinson 10.7 PPG & 7.3 RPG who will control the paint. Versatile senior Shelby Miller 12 PPG & 8 RPG, along with H. Graft 9.2 PPG and junior B. Chamberlin 8.4 PPG will be others counted on for strong contributions. The Golden Falcons are healthy again, both Miller and Lawrence played the state championship with knee injuries, and ready for the challenge to get back to the finals.

Returning % of scoring: 72%

Notable newcomers: 2021 Taylor Heath (back from injury)

Notable games: Central Noble (Nov 24), New Palestine (Jan 8)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 42 The Tigers will be favorites to repeat, 2017 is a reminder what can happen come tourney time. Shenandoah will be their biggest threat.

2020 5'8 Guard Maya Chandler

The Tigers were taken out in the round of 16 last season by eventual state runner-up Winchester. While they lose some pieces from that squad they return the nucleus along with some additions that will provide solid depth. Led by Junior All Star candidate point guard Maya Chandler 14.3 PPG, 6.8 RPG, 5.2 APG and sophomore Tenleigh Phelps who is coming off an impressive frosh campaign 15.1 PPG 7.7 RPG. The Tigers will also have 5'11 wing Rylie Stephens, Shelbyville transfer, for the entire season along with PG Taylor Heath who returns from injury. 6'1 sophomore Bailey Stamper provides some size in the paint and junior Grace Crist adds perimeter shooting. Talented starting five and one of the deepest benches in 2A will put the Tigers in the hunt.

Sectional Notes: Sectional 35 After winning their first ever sectional in 2017, Central Noble is favorite to win its third straight sectional.

2019 5'8 Guard Sydney Freeman

The defending state champs return the top 1-2 inside/out punch in 2A with Indiana Miss Basketball candidates point guard Sydney Freeman (Ball State commit) 17.4 PPG, 5.6 RPG, 5 APG and Indiana All Star candidate forward Meleah Leatherman (St. Francis commit) 14.3 PPG 10 RPG. The Cougars will need to replace the production of graduated Calista Rice but have several youngsters that made an impact last season including starters junior Sab Brumbaugh, and sophomores Bridget Grey 4.6 PPG and Lydia Andrews who had 9 points off the bench in the state championship game. Central Noble once again has the tools to give itself the always difficult task of repeating.

Monroe Central 24-1 ran through the regular season without a blemish but was unable to get out of the sectional losing to eventual Final Four participant Frankton. The Golden Bears lose a couple starters and lots of minutes from that squad including the inside presence of Abigail McGrath. However, they return their two playing making scorers in senior All-Star candidate Jordyn Barga (Kentucky Wesleyan commit) 16.8 PPG 7.4 RPG and Junior All-Star candidate Hannah Graft 14.2PPG. Replacing those graduated minutes and production will be key for the Bears, junior Katie Pike along with others will need to fill those holes.

3A INDIANA HIGH SCHOOL PREVIEW

As expected a loaded Northwestern squad cruised to the 3A State title, with an average margin of victory in the 7 tournament games of 43 points. The Tigers, led by D1 commits Madison Layden and Kendall Bostic, ended with a 29-1 mark with the lone blemish being an out of state loss at the hands of Louisville Mercy. While Northwestern has lost two productive pieces from that team with the graduation of Sara Voss and transfer of D1 commit Taylor Boruff, make no mistake they are once again stacked and a heavy favorite to repeat. Salem, featuring Leah Miller, who brings back nearly 90% of their production from a 22 win team and a balanced Evansville Memorial are a couple teams to keep an eye on out of the south. Danville who has made back-back final four appearances, led by junior Ella Collier, is another but the Warriors lost nearly 40% of their output from a year ago.

As expected, Northwestern cruised to the 3A State title, with no tournament game closer than the 21 point victory in the finals. The Tigers finished with a 29-1 mark. They are once again not just the top 3A team this season but a legitimate Top 10 team overall. The Tigers will have to replace the loss of D1 commit transfer Taylor Boruff and graduated starter Vass. They return two of the state's top 2020 prospects in Kendall Bostic (Michigan State commit) 15.6 PPG & 8.3 RPG in the frontcourt and Madison Layden (Purdue commit) 18.7 PPG & 5.3 APG in the backcourt. Senior forward Stephanie Burns 5 PPG & 5 and junior K.Merrell 4.6 PPG will be counted on for added offensive production.

Sectional Notes: Sectional 28 Danville will be favorites to win a third sectional in a row. Tri West could provide some resistance.

2020 5'11 Wing Ella Collier

It's a mixed bag for the Warriors, they lost some significant pieces to graduation Riggles, Muse and Addie Collier on the interior but return plenty of talent. That talent starts with one of the state's top juniors in 5'11 wing Ella Collier 21.3 PPG & 5.4 RPG, along with athletic senior Jenna Cowart 7 PPG and sophomore Maddie Patterson 5.3 PPG who made a strong contribution as a freshman. Others will need to develop and contribute but the core will keep Danville as contender in 3A.

Sectional Notes: Sectional 22 The Hornets have not won a sectional since 2003 and will need to go through 4x defending champ Concordia to halt the draught.

2021 5'6 Guard Hannah Knoll

The Hornets won 23 games and return the bulk of the production from that squad. They will need to fill the void from the graduation of Cranston but have 7 returners that played in 25 games. Led by the dynamic backcourt of sophomore Hannah Knoll 11 PPG & 3 SPG and junior Ali Lorntz 8 PPG & 2 APG. Other major contributors include seniors G.McHugh, S.Davendack and juniors K.Fenstermaker, B.Worman. Sectional Notes: Sectional 31 Three time sectional defending champ and favorite for number four.

2021 5'11 Forward Maycee Lange

The Alices will have to replace significant minutes and production with the graduation of 7 seniors including C.Trueblood, L.Sparks and A.Haynes. Haynes only saw limited action due to an injury and D.Carmean developed in her absence. The Alices return their top three scorers including one of the top front courts in 3A. Senior 6'1 post Alison Hein 13 PPG 5.6 RPG is handful in the paint and sophomore athletic forward Maycee Lange 11 PPG 8.5 RPG is coming off an impressive freshman year. As mentioned junior Darrian Carmean 11PPG 3.5 APG will steer the offense. Lincoln will need to develop additional depth but the returning core will keep them in the 3A mix.

4A Indiana High School Preview

Warren Central caught fire in late January and rode a nine game winning streak to emerge as the 4A State Champs. The Warriors return nearly all the pieces from that squad and are among the favorites but several others will contend as well. Two years removed from a state title, Homestead has all the tools and experience to find themselves in Indy once again. North Central, arguably the most talented squad over the last two years have been unable to avoid the injury bug. At full strength they could break through to the championship play. HSE has four seniors with a ton of talent and experience along with one of the top juniors in the state. While Jeffersonville will have to slug its way out of Sectional 12 they are a top contender out of the south. Bedford North Lawrence with Miss Basketball candidate Jorie Allen is another contender out of sectional 12. Penn and Lawrence North could strike this year as Warren did last year but appear to be a year away. If Miss Basketball Maddie Nolan returns at an elite level by tourney time the Eagles will once again be in the mix. The MIC conference represents with six teams in the preseason top 20. Both Sectional 10 & 15 have three in our Top 15 teams.

Notable newcomers: 2021 Grace Sullivan (FW Canterbury transfer), 22' Ayanna Patterson

Notable games: North Central (Dec 21), Summit (Dec 26), Jeffersonville (28), @ Lawrence North (Jan 5)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 6 Homestead was four time defending sectional champ before FW South broke up the party last year. The Spartans should be able to reclaim that title.

Most programs would be flying high on a 19 win season, that's not the level of success the Spartans have come accustomed to. Homestead is poised to make another run to the state finals on the back of talent and experience. Senior sharpshooter and Indiana All Star candidate Sylare Starks (Detroit Mercy commit) 18.1 PPG and four year letter winner Haley Swing (Grand Valley State commit) 9PPG & 6 RPG lead the way. Junior All Star candidate Sydney Graber (Central Michigan commit) 15 PPG 8 RPG and point guard Kara Gealy are the other major pieces. Add one of the top frosh in the country in 6'3 Ayanna Patterson, along with sophomore point guard transfer Grace Sullivan (FTW Canterbury) 9.3 PPG 4 RPG and the Spartans have all the pieces to be very special.

Sectional Notes: Sectional 10.

The Panthers were undefeated and rated #1 then that all changed on December 22nd during a game in which Rikki Harris suffered a season ending injury. From that point NC finished the season 6-7 and lost to eventual state champ Warren Central in the sectional. North Central will return several key components from that talented squad, including Miss Basketball candidate Rikki Harris (Ohio State commit) 17.3 PPG 5.3 RPG and Indiana All Star candidate Savaya Brockington (Purdue Northwest commit) 14.7 PPG who should return from injury in December. NC also welcomes junior all-star candidate Jasmine McWilliams 9 PPG 7 RPG, a Carmel transfer. Add several sophomores coming off impact freshman season in N.Hunter 5.4 PPG 5.7 RPG, A.Terry and M.Newman. The Panthers are top contenders if they can get and stay healthy.

2020 6'2 Guard Sydney Parrish

The clock has nearly struck midnight, the talented senior class have played at the varsity level going into their fourth year and have yet to break out of the sectional. The talent and opportunity is theirs. HSE is led by nationally recruited and Junior All Star candidate 6'1 Sydney Parrish 15.7 PPG and 5.7 RPG. Senior class includes T.Irvin (Northern Kentucky commit) 6.7 PPG, A. Hamilton (Duquesne commit) 8.5 PPG & 5.8 RPG and M. Jackson (Illinois Springfield commit) 9 PPG. and M. Walton 6.2 PPG. Sectional Notes: Sectional 15 Double OT heart breaking loss in sectional play. Jeffersonville will still face one of the state's toughest fields but should have the upper hand. The Red Devils last won a sectional championship in 2011 during their state title run.

2020 5'11 Wing Nan Garcia

The Red Devils return 7 players that saw significant playing time from last year's 20 win season. Paced by Junior All Star candidate 5'11 Nan Garcia 16.7 PPG 6.8 RPG. The supporting cast is balanced and experienced which includes senior J.Lilly (IU Kokomo commit) 5.5 RPG 3.5 APG, T.Handley (Southern Illinois commit) 8.5 PPG and juniors K. James and K.Poor. 2019 5'6 Guard Shaila Beeler

The Warriors won 20 games and a state championship and will return the key pieces for another run. The question becomes are the Warriors the team that caught fire after a 25 point January 20th loss to Jeffersonville and rode a nine game winning streak to the title or the team that was 11-7 prior to that. Led by Miss Basketball candidate Shaila Beeler (Indiana commit) 13.5 PPG 5 APG and 6'5 All Star candidate Cydni Dodd (Michigan State commit) 11PPG 6.6 RPG. Add 5'10 Junior K'ja Talley 11.6 PPG 5.1 RPG and Melody Johnson 6.0 PPG that made major contributions last season. 2019 6'1 Forward Jorie Allen

23 wins and a final four appearance and the Stars bring back 83% of the production from that success. Led by Miss Basketball candidtae Jorie Allen (Indiana commit) 17.1 PPG 8 RPG. BNL also returns 6'3 junior Madison Webb 8 PPG 4.6 RPG, senior sharp shooter Jacy Hughes 7.4 PPG and sophomore Chloe McKnight returns from a tournament injury 8 PPG . A.Fugate returns after hip replacement for her senior season and K.Fisher will provide valuable minutes. The story is the transfer of Miss Basketball candidate Trinity Brady (Nebraska commit) but don't let that distract you from the deep talent that remains on this 20 win team. Led by Junior All Star candidate 5'11 Katie Davidson along with talented junior teammates Lauren Gunn and Kristen Young. The Kingsmen are coming off their fifth straight twenty win season and will need to replace two critical pieces to that success in S.DoI and T.Chambers. Penn played three very talented freshman in all 28 contest last year J.Smith 9.6 PPG, T.Clinton 8 PPG, and G.Adams 3 PPG they will be a big part of sustaining that success. Junior sharpshooter Reganne Pate 6.3 PPG and 6'2 A.Shelton 3.7 PPG will play big roles as well. Senior PG Jayda Smith will return from injury and provide additional depth in the backcourt. Sectional Notes: Sectional 7 Zionsville has found Sectional 7 much more suitable winning 3 sectional titles since being moved.

The Eagles are coming off a state runner-up finish and their third straight 20 win season. Nearly everybody was returning from that squad and Zionsville would be among the favorites to return to the finals. That all changed in July when Miss Basketball candidate Maddie Nolan suffered a knee injury that will keep her on the sideline for the majority of the season. The Eagles still have the tools to be a competitive squad but obviously have taken a huge blow. The Richason sisters will shoulder the load, senior Delaney Richason (Vermont commit) 10.6 PPG 6.2 RPG and sophomore Katey Richason 9.4 PPG 6.1 RPG. Seniors G.Woodworth 9.5 PPG and 6'1 Megan Sheridan 8 PPG 5.2 RPG will be leaned on heavily as well. 2019 5'7 Guard Emma Utterback

The Trojans lost Indiana All-Star Cassidy Hardin, Amy Davis and Karinna Frankel to graduation. However, they still return one of the top backcourts in the state with seniors Emma Utterback (Vermont commit) 9 PPG 3 APG and Ella Thompson (Bentley commit) 8.4 PPG 4.6 RPG. Add 5'9 Junior guard Claire Rake, who would star in most other backcourts, and Alainna Frankle and the Trojans have no shortage of talented guard play. The question for Center Grove, as in previous years, will be the production from a frontcourt that has little size. Expect sophomore Mary Wilson to make big contribution. Once again Center Grove will have to scrap around the basket against most teams but their ball skill and shooting will make them dangerous each contest.

2019 5'9 Guard Reagan Hune

Carmel graduated three D1 commits including Miss Basketball Amy Dilk and lost both starter Jasmine McWilliams and Madi Sears to transfer along with their head coach. Despite all of that there is still plenty of talent to keep the Greyhounds competitive. Seniors 6'1 forward McKenzie Wood (Penn commit), R. Hune 7.7 PPG 4.3 RPG, M. Berglund 7PPG and S.Bair bring back experience and production. Sophomores T.Seitz and B.Dunn will play much bigger roles, while freshman 5'11 W.K.Clark will make an immediate impact. 2019 6'0 Forward Leah Seib

Perhaps a bit of a sleeper but when you start to peel back the layers there is a lot to like. The Dragons return all but 4PPG from an 18 win team, including their four top returning scorers and rebounders. That doesn't even include their most athletic and explosive player in junior Jordan Reid who missed last season with an injury. Led by senior forwards Leah Seib 13.7 PPG 6.2 RPG, Katie Herron 6.5 PPG 6 RPG and senior guards Haley Harrison 8 PPG, M.Jolly 9.2 PPG. Four others saw action in at least 16 varsity contest.
