4A Indiana High School Preview

Add three of last season's top 3A squads, which are moving up to the 4A level, to several of last year's top 4A squads that are returning large portions of their production and you have a deep and talented 4A field. Pike, last year's State Runner-up, returns the core of that team led by Miss Basketball candidate Angel Baker. The Red Devils will be without Roberson, who will be out a majority of the regular season with an injury, but have added talented transfer guard Keith. Several other MIC conference teams join Pike in the top twenty including Carmel who returns four starters including Miss Basketball candidate Amy Dilk. The Greyhounds also possess one of the deepest benches in the state. North Central who finished the regular season undefeated and ranked number one last season, suffered an early blow with the loss of senior and Indiana All-Star candidate Taylor Ramey to injury but still have a talented lineup. Jeffersonville. Bedford North Lawrence and North Harrison may be tops out of the south. However, only one will emerge from perhaps the state's top Sectionals (15). Several other talented squads have the tools and experience to make an impact as well, including HSE, Martinsville (Miss Basketball candidate Kayana Traylor) and East Chicago Central (Miss Basketball candidate Jenasae Bishop) to name a few.

Carmel Greyhounds

Coach Windlan

Conference Metropolitan

Sectional 8

2016-17 Record: 23-4

2016-17 Final Sagarin Rank: 4

2016-17 Schedule Rank: 2

Leading returning scorer & rebounder: 2018 Amy Dilk 14.8 PPG

2020 Jazmine McWilliams 6.8 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 89%

Notable games: Homestead (Nov 4), HSE (Nov 24), North Central (Dec 15), HOF v Martinsville (Dec 29), Pike (Jan 19)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 8 will most likely mirror 2016-17 sectional with two Top 10 heavyweights in Carmel and Hamilton Southeastern on a collision course. Carmel is the defending sectional champ and went on to the Elite 8 last season.

2018 5'10 Guard Amy Dilk

Carmel a top 5 squad throughout the 2016-17 campaign returns four starters and 89% of its offensive production. Leading the way for the Greyhounds will be 2018 Indiana Miss Basketball candidate and University of Michigan commit Amy Dilk 14.8 PPG, 6.6 RPG, 6.4 APG. The balance attack, which scored 63.3 a contest, also includes senior sharp shooter (Iowa commit) Tomi Taiwo 14 PPG, 6'3 (Ball State commit) Blake Smith 8.4 PPG & 5.8 RPG and 2020 Jazmine McWilliams 6 PPG & 6.8 RPG. Carmel also shows plenty of depth which includes 2019's M. Wood, R. Hune and M. Berglund, along with senior M. Gillig and sophomore M. Sears. Carmel who lost in the Elite 8 to eventual state champ Homestead, appear to be aligned for another deep run in the post season.

2016-17 Schedule Rank: 3

Leading returning scorer & rebounder: 2018 Angel Baker 19.4 PPG

2018 Michaela White 9.0 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 86%

Notable newcomers: Mikia Keith (transfer Inpls Crispus Attucks)

Notable games: Jeffersonville Tourney (Nov 25), @North Central (Dec 1), Carmel (Jan 19)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 11 Pike will be the favorite but will have to contend with MIC foe Ben Davis that nearly knocked off the Red Devils in last year's sectionals championship. Pike has won 3 of its last 4 sectionals.

2018 5'9 Guard Angel Baker

The Red Devil post season run almost didn't get started, but after an opening sectional game OT win they went on a nail biting run to the State championship game where they fell to Homestead 54-61. Pike returns four starters and 86% of their offensive production from the state runner-up squad. Led by a pair of Indiana All-Star candidates in (Wright State commit) Angel Baker 19.4 PPG, 5.7 RPG, 4 APG and (Indiana State commit) Michaela White 11.3 PPG & 9 RPG. Pike will be without junior J. Roberson 10 PPG for most of the season due to injury but have added Attucks transfer M. Keith 15.2 PPG. Both junior K. Garrard 8.9 PPG & 7.3 RPG and senior M. Brown will give productive minutes as well. The inside/outside balance should once again make Pike a legit force for another run in the tournament.

Conference Hoosier Crossroads

Sectional 8

2016-17 Record 19-6

2016-17 Final Sagarin Rank: 6

2016-17 Schedule Rank: 6

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2020 Sydney Parrish 16.2PPG

2020 Sydney Parrish 5.7 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 69%

Notable games: Carmel (Nov 24), @ North Central Trny (Dec 27), Zionsville (Jan 19), Pike (Jan 23)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 8 HSE has bowed out to Carmel the last two seasons and will most likely have to climb that hill once again this year to break through to regional round. The Royals stunningly haven't won a sectional in 10 years.

Hamilton Southeastern has had a lot of young talent on the floor over the last two seasons, that talent now has the experience to be as capable as any team in the state. HSE is led by the state's top 2020 prospect in 6'1 Sydney Parrish 16.2 PPG and 5.7 RPG. The Royals return a good part of their core but will need to replace Bre Lloyd's, Wright State, production 14.4 PPG. A trio of high level juniors are very capable T. Irvin 5.4 PPG, A. Hamilton 6.6 PPG & 5.5 RPG and M. Jackson 8.9 PPG. M. Walton 4.3 PPG and L. Morris and will add depth to the backcourt. HSE will need to solve cross county rival Carmel come sectional time.

Conference Metropolitan

Sectional 10

2016-17 Record: 27-1

2016-17 Final Sagarin Rank: 2

2016-17 Schedule Rank: 4

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2019 Rikki Harris 17.4 PPG

2019 Rikki Harris 6.5 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 52%

Notable newcomers: 21' N.Hunter, 21' M.Newman, 21' A.Terry

Notable games: BNL (Nov 17), Pike (Dec 1), Carmel (Dec 15)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 10 North Central captured its first sectional since the 2012 season. The sectional will require a high level of play to come out the other end with the addition of traditional powerhouse Heritage Christian to 4A through the success factor, along with MIC opponents Lawrence North and potential sleeper Warren Central.

2019 5'10 Guard Rikki Harris

They always say it's difficult to beat a quality opponent three times in a season. The Panthers entered the post season as the undefeated 4A #1. However, North Central lost in the Regional final in their third matchup of the season against eventual state runner-up, and MIC foe, Pike 59-61. North Central will return several key components from that talented squad, graduating Indiana State recruit Ajanae Thomas and losing senior sharpshooter Taylor Ramey 11 PPG (IUPUI commit) to injury. The Panther lineup will feature junior all-star candidate Rikki Harris 17.4 PPG. Senior Ajah Stallings 10.6 PPG (Purdue commit) and junior Savaya Brockington 5.9 PPG are also key forces on both ends of the floor. The high powered offense averaged over 66 points a contest, which was eighth in the state. The combination of an experienced skilled core and a tough schedule should have the Panthers prepared for a tournament run.

2018 Britney Epperson 5.2 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 78%

Notable games: @ BNL (Nov 18), Jeffersonville Tourney (Nov 25), Warren Central (Jan 12)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 15 Perhaps the toughest sectional in the state with three potential Top 10 teams looking to escape including defending sectional champ BNL and last year's 3A state runner up North Harrison. The Red devils last won a sectional championship in 2011 during their state title run.

2018 5'10 Guard Jacinta Gibson

The Red Devils have averaged 16 wins over the last four seasons, very respectful, but this should be the year they break through and approach that 20 win mark. They return 8 players that saw significant court time last season and are led by senior (Western Michigan commit) Jacinta Gibson 8 PPG. 2020 Nan Garcia 7.3 PPG 4.4 RPG mad a big splash as a frosh last season. Seniors J. Brown and B. Epperson, along with juniors T. Handley, C. Gibson, J. Lilly, are all capable of making significant contributions. The Red Devils have the size, skill, depth and experience to be a serious contender coming out of the south.

Conference Mid State

Sectional 13

2016-17 Record: 21-5

Leading returning scorer & rebounder:

2018 Jessica Nix 7.1 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 90%

Notable games: Jeffersonville Tourney (Nov25), Center Grove (Dec12), HOF v Carmel (Dec 29)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 13 The Artesians are figured to be favorites to repeat in their sectional. However, last year's sectional was their first in almost a decade. Center Grove is a legitimate threat in the sectional as well.

2018 5'9 Guard Kayana Traylor

The senior class has won 51 games over the last three seasons and are positioned for a legitimate deep run into the tournament. Led by Indiana Miss Basketball candidate and Purdue commit Kayana Traylor 23.4 PPG, 5.3 RPG, 4.5 APG. Also part of the 2018 class are Jessica Nix 8.2 PPG & 7.1 RPG, Merideth Deckard 12.4 PPG, and (Chicago State commit) Christina Alexander. Look for significant contributions from 2019s B. Mackin, G. Johnson and P. Dorsett as well. Sophomore 6'2 M. Kemp could produce promising minutes too. Martinsville has the elements that should allow for a promising season, including outside/inside balance, experience, depth, and a Miss Basketball candidate to lean on.

Coach Voyles

Conference Mid-Southern

Sectional 15

Returning % of scoring: 90%

Notable games: Jeffersonville Tourney (Nov 25), @New Albany (Nov 30), BNL (Jan 18)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 15 The Lady Cats get thrown directly into the 4A fire after moving up due to their back to back State final appearances and the IHSAA success factor. With the addition of the Cats, Sectional 15 will have three potential Top 10 schools which also includes Jeffersonville and BNL. North Harrison has both the experience and skill to make it out.

2019 6'1 Forward Lilly Hatton

North Harrison has made a two year run that has produced a 55-6 record and two State Runner-up finishes in 3A. The Lady Cats will move up to 4A due to the IHSAA success factor. However, returning 90% of the offensive production and experience should translate to a successful 4A campaign for the Cats. 2019 Junior All-Star candidate Lilly Hatton 20.1 PPG 8.9 RPG leads the way with senior and Indiana All-Star candidate (Kentucky Wesleyan commit) Cali Nolot 13.5 PPG 3.8 APG making up the second head of the monster. Seniors T. Rennirt 8.3 PPG 3.6 APG, H. Hinton, and E. Nokes will all contribute. Sophomore 6'2 L. Robertson should start to emerge as well. The biggest questions at the 4A level will be depth and schedule but the experience and talent is there to compete.

Returning % of scoring: 19%

Notable newcomers: 2019 Sylare Starks (transfer FW Concordia), Amber Austin

Notable games: Carmel (Nov 4), Northridge (Nov 9), Lawrence North (Jan2)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 6 Homestead is the four time defending sectional champ and should be the favorite yet again but Fort Wayne South could provide some resistance.

2019 6'0 Forward Haley Swing

The last three seasons have resulted in a State Championship, Final Four and a State runner-up. The Spartans were two overtime loses away from a perfect State championship season. The senior core of those teams are now gone including Miss Basketball and Purdue commit Karissa McLaughlin 25.9 PPG along with Madisen Parker (Bowling Green) 16.8 PPG and Jazmyne Geist (Northern Kentucky) 10 PPG 8 RPG. However, plenty of talent remains that's capable of keeping the train on the tracks. Junior Haley Swing 4PPG & 4.5 RPG started on the State Championship team, while 2020 Sydney Graber got significant minutes as a frosh 3.5 PPG & 4.7 RPG. K. Gealy, S. Buck and B. Lucas look to be key pieces as well. Junior All-Star candidate Sylare Starks 15.9 PPG, formerly FW Concordia, may be the most significant transfer of the off season and will provide a big offensive punch for the Spartans. Homestead may be a year away from another deep run but they will hold their own in the 2017-18 campaign.

Notable newcomers: 2020 Madison Webb (injury 206-17 season), 2021 Chloe McKnight

Notable games: @ North Central (Nov 17) Jeffersonville (Nov 18), @ North Harrison (Jan 18)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 15 BNL is the six time defending sectional champ. However, this year they may face their toughest challenge as two time 3A State Runner up North Harrison jumps into the 4A field and Jeffersonville arguably possess the deepest talent pool in the field.

2019 6'0 Forward Jorie Allen

The Stars have been a 4A powerhouse for the last 7 years, which includes their 2014 State Championship. That should continue this year behind junior all-star candidate Jorie Allen 17.7 PPG 10.3 RPG. BNL returns three quarters of their offensive production from a team that posted 21 wins and an Elite 8 appearance. They will need to replace the production of graduated Kennedy Bunch 11.8 PPG but have several experienced players to lean on in senior M. Messmore 7.3 PPG, and juniors A. Fugate 6.9 PPG and J. Hughes 5.5 PPG. 2020 6'2 M. Webb will also play a key role as she returns from an injury that keep her out last season.

Returning % of scoring: 74%

Notable newcomers: Micah Jett, Natalie Howard

Notable games: @North Central (Jan 4), Pike (Jan 13), @Carmel (Jan 26)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 11 The Giants gave State runner up Pike everything they could handle in last year's sectional championship 55-58. Expect to see another showdown between these MIC foes.

2018 5'9 Guard Nia Clark

The Giants had a 20 win season and fell in the tournament to MIC foe and state runner-up Pike. They return nearly 78% of their offensive production including Indiana All-Star candidate (Miami commit), Nia Clark 18.6 PPG. 2020 Khera Goss brings versatility and put together a solid freshman campaign 8.6 PPG 4.1 RPG but will be sidelined until December. Fellow sophomore Cherrelle Newsome knocked down 38 threes in her opening season. Ben Davis has a backcourt that can handle itself against any opponent, the question will be the production up front on both ends. The Giants who have won 24 sectionals haven't added to that total in the last five seasons.

Returning % of scoring: 40%

Notable newcomers: Jayla Smith

Notable games: Heritage Christian (Nov 11), Carmel (Nov 28), Pike (Jan 4), HSE (Jan 16), North Central (Jan 20)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 10 LN doesn't get to escape the MIC as they have 4 conference foes in their sectional including North Central and Warren Central. Add Heritage Christian who has moved up to 4A and you have one of the top sectionals in the state. The Wildcats 3 year run as sectional champs was broke last season as they look to get back on top.

The Wildcats will have to replace the production of D1 (Akron) graduate Destiny Perkins but they have plenty of experience cycling D1 talent through the program. The reins will be handed over to junior all-star candidate Trinity Brady 15 PPG & 7.8, who has a stack of D1 offers herself. An outstanding sophomore class will be a major part of the contribution as well in Katie Davidson 9.1 PPG & 5.2 RPG, Lauren Gunn and Kristen Young. Freshman Jayla Smith could make an immediate impact as well.

Notable games: @Carmel (Nov 9), @ Lawrence North (Nov 11), @ Northwestern (Dec 14),

Sectional Notes: Sectional 10 Heritage Christian doesn't get a very pleasant welcome to 4A. The Eagles moving up to 4A due to success factor has landed in sectional 10 with half the Metropolitan conference including North Central, Lawrence North and Warren Central. The Eagles have talent to compete.

With seven State championships since 2006 the Eagles have worked their way up from 2A to 4A. The Eagles posted its fifth consecutive 20 win season before falling in the 3A Final Four to eventual State champ South Bend St Joseph. Heritage Christian lost over 40% of its scoring to graduation but returns one of the state's best backcourts. Led by Indiana Miss Basketball candidate and Notre Dame commit Katlyn Gilbert 16.8 PPG 7.5 RPG. The backcourt also includes 2018 H. Harris 6.8 PPG, 2019 M. Ferguson 3.1 PPG, 2020 Watkins 4.4 PPG. 2021 A. Wiggins, who has already received multiple D1 offers, is considered one of top incoming Indiana frosh and is anticipated to make a big contribution immediately. Around the basket junior Shelby Case will shoulder the load. The Eagles traditionally play one of the state's top schedules and will have already been tested against the state's best come 4A sectional time.

2018 5'8 Guard Jenasae Bishop

The Cardinals will be without Miss Basketball candidate (Boston College commit) Jenasae Bishop 24.9 PPG, 6.2 RPG, and 4.5 APG until sometime in December as she works her way back from an off-season injury. Junior All-Star candidate 6'5 center Tai-Yanna Jackson 11.8 PPG 12.5 RPG will carry the load until then. Seniors Zariah Frierson 11.7 PPG 5.2 RPG and Nia Hurt 6.8 PPG add additional help. Sectional Notes: Sectional 13 Center Grove had won back to back sectionals before falling to Martinsville last season. Look for one of these two teams to once again come out of this sectional.

2018 5'10 Guard Cassidy Hardin

The Trojans have one the deepest backcourts in the state. Led by sharp shooter and Indiana All-Star candidate (Purdue commit) Cassidy Hardin 14 PPG 5.1 RPG. Juniors Emma Utterback 5.3 PPG, Ella Thompson 5.3 PPG and senior Amy Davis bring back a lot of experience in the backcourt. Add sophomores Claire Rake and Alaina Frankel for even more guard depth. The question for Center Grove will be the production from a frontcourt that has little size. Freshman Mary Wilson could add some production for Center Grove. Never count out a team full of shooters but the ability to defend around the basket and rebound will determine their success.

The Kingsmen are coming off their fourth straight twenty win season and just two years removed from a State Championship. They return 75% of their production from last year, led by senior guard (Huntington commit) Sara Doi 12.4 PPG & 3.8 APG. Fellow senior Tia Chambers, who is returning from a knee injury, 11.2 PPG 6.5 RPG will provide the interior presence. Sophomore Reganne Pate 7.6 is coming off a solid freshman season and junior Makenzie Kilmer 4.2 PPG will provide production as well. Several other sophomores saw significant varsity time last season as frosh, four played in 19 or more games, including A. Shelton and A. Goralczyk. 3A Indiana High School Preview

The 3A landscape has been shaken up for the 2017-18 season. The IHSAA “Success Factor” has sent three of last seasons top 3A programs into the 4A class. State Champ South Bend St Joseph, two time State Runner-up North Harrison and seven time State Champ Heritage Christian are all playing at the 4A level this season. While this most definitely effects the depth of the 3A talent pool, there are a number of teams that bring back talent rich squads. Northwestern, one of last year’s top teams will be the favorite out of the North returning 74% of its production, including four Division 1 prospects. Greensburg an experienced and guard heavy squad led by Indiana All-Star candidate Kyra Whitaker will be a favorite out of the South. Danville who made a run to the Final Four last season and returns 90% of their production is a serious contender as well. Several other squads have the star power to make noise through-out the season.

2020 Kendall Bostic 14.9 PPG

2020 Kendall Bostic 8.3 RPG

Returning % of scoring: 74%

Notable newcomers: Ellie Boyer

Notable games: Heritage Christian (Dec 14), West Lafayette (Jan 4), @Oak Hill (Jan 10)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 20 Expect this sectional to come down to two top 10 teams in Northwestern and West Lafayette, with the preseason 3A #1 Tigers as the sectional favorites. The Tigers won their first sectional last year in 11 seasons and look to defend.

2020 6'1 Forward Kendall Bostic

Northwestern was not just one of the top 3A teams last season but a legitimate Top 20 team overall. Northwestern's season ended in a Elite 8 loss to eventual state Champ SBSJ. The Tigers high powered offense, 68 PPG, is led by four youngsters that all have multiple D1 offers. Two of the state's top 2020 prospects in Kendall Bostic 14.9 PPG & 8.3 RPG in the frontcourt and Madison Layden 14.4 PPG & 6.3 APG in the backcourt, along with 2019s Taylor Boruff 9.1 PPG & 3.7 RPG and Stephanie Burns who returns full strength from injury. Other contributors will include seniors S. Vas and Kora Loer. Northwestern with a strong frontcourt / backcourt balance, along with adequate depth should be poised for a another run in the state tournament.

Notable newcomers: Melina Wilkinson, Taylor Cooney, Anna West

Notable games: East Central (Nov 22), Rushville (Dec 9), Noblesville Tourney (Dec 29)

Sectional Notes: Sectional 29 The Pirates will be the class of the field but that field will include several other solid teams that will contend including conference foes Rushville, Batesville and Lawrenceburg. The Pirates were knocked off by Rushville last season after winning the sectional in 2016.

2018 5'8 Guard Kyra Whitaker

Greensburg is a talented and experienced squad, returning 4 starters from a 21-3 campaign last season, including 95% of its scoring. Led by senior experience and Indiana All-Star candidate Kyra Whitaker (Indiana Tech commit) 18.3 PPG & 3.4 APG. The other seniors include Bailey Meyer 9.5 PPG, Rhegan Day 6.1 PPG, Keirsten Lynette 4.1 RPG, and Ashlynn Meyer 4.2 PPG. The Pirates also return two sophomores who made major contributions as freshman last season in A. Evans 9.6 PPG & 5 RPG and M. Morrison. Sectional Notes: Sectional 28 Last year the Warriors won two 1 point games on their way to the sectional championship and eventually a Final Four run. This year should be no different with two strong squads in Beech Grove and Indian Creek contending as well.

2020 5'11 Wing Ella Collier

The Warriors return four of five starters, including the top four leading scorers from last year's squad that made a run to the 3A Final Four. Three double figure scores pace Danville led by sophomore Ella Collier who not only started all 29 games but led her squad in scoring as a frosh 12.5 PPG & 6.1 RPG. Senior sharp shooter Lexi Riggles (Hanover commit) 11.3 PPG and 2019 Jenna Cowart 10.4 PPG. Senior Addie Collier led the squad in rebounding 6.9 RPG and contributed 7.2 PPG. 2018 5'8 Guard Kylie Martin

West Lafayette will have to replace over 18 PPG from graduation but return plenty of production and talent. Sectional Notes: Sectional 28 A very competitive sectional that includes last year's Final Four participant and top ten team Danville, the Hornets and a very solid Indian Creek team.

Beech Grove features one of the top 1-2 punches in the state with the senior duo of Cameron Cardenas (Marian) 20.3 PPG & 3.3 APG and Katie Giller (Marian) 20.2 PPG & 9.6 RPG. The biggest question will be depth and the experience of the supporting cast. The Hornets will also rely on seniors M. Storms 7 PPG, S. McGregors and several sophomores including M. Crawford and N. Fort Wayne Dwenger will have to replace the production of three graduated seniors and most notably point guard transfer Jayda Smith 9.9 PPG (Penn) but bring back plenty of talent. 1A Indiana High School Preview

Last season's state finalist Wood Memorial and Union City both graduated major pieces. Final four participants Marquette Catholic and Indianapolis Tindley both bring back nearly their entire squads from their deep tournament runs. The Blazers started five sophomores in their Final Four matchup led by 6'1 D1 commits Emma and Sophia Nolan. The Tindley Tigers return all their starters from the state's highest scoring squad led by seniors Kendall Fisher and Skye Williams. Several other traditional 1A powers, such as Vincennes Rivet and Jac-Cen-Del, will find themselves in the mix as well.
