

May Day Championship Recap IGBRR Report Indianapolis, IN May 1-2, 2021

One hundred teams, including fifty in the high school divisions laced them up and played over the first weekend of May in the 3rd annual May Day Championship in the southern Indianapolis area. Seven platinum bracket champions were crowned, including three in the high school divisions. The recap will look at those high school divisions championships and the All-Tourney teams.

Thirty high school games can be found on the IGBRR TV YouTube channel, which includes those three championship matchups. A four hundred picture photo gallery is attached to this website post as well and you can find much more about the weekends top performers by following the twitter of @coachbeckett and hashtag #MayDay21. We would once again like to thank all the teams and clubs that participated this year and we look forward to the 2022 May Day Championship.

May Day Championship 17U Division

Twenty-two teams competed in the 17U division at the 2021 May Day Championship. The Wisconsin Lakers White BSTTL squad used a talented and balanced attack to cruise to a 5-0 record over the weekend and take home the 17U May Day Championship. The Lakers were led by 6'3 junior PF Alaina Harper, who was named division MVP, with her consistent and productive play, along with the long-range shooting of sophomore Grace Grocholski and teammates. The Indy Magic Harmon squad made a run to the championship behind the play of junior PG Alexis Wines, who averaged a tourney best 20.5 PPG, before finishing runner up. Indiana Flight 22' GUAA, 3-1, was able to win a competitive Gold bracket.

May Day Championship 15U Division

The 15U division was made up of sixteen teams looking to make a run at the May Day Championship. The four pool winners matched up in Sunday Platinum bracket play. In one semi-final Indiana Showcase Black 24' got by Indy Magic Abel 24', while in the other the Wisconsin Laker 24' squad sailed past the Indiana Showcase Red 24' team. In the championship the Lakers continued to flex their muscle, betting a second Showcase squad to capture the 15U May Day Championship title. Freshman PG Natalie Meaux led the way for the Wisconsin Lakers throughout the weekend, including a 20-point effort in the championship, and was named the division MVP. A talented IGB Morse 2025 squad cruised to the gold bracket win.
