

2021 IGBRR All-Indiana Showcase

One hundred of Indiana's top girls high school basketball prospects participated in the invitation only IGBRR All-Indiana Showcase on Sunday August 15th at Triton Central High School. The showcase included players from four different classes (10) 2022s, (40) 2023s, (40) 2024s, (10) 2024s. The underclass included most of the top prospects within their respective classes. The uncommitted 2022 class included 10 of the class's top 100 players that played in front of NAIA/D3 college coaches that were recruiting them.

The event started with an hour of station work. The participants rotated between four stations including several skill training stations and a sports performance consultation. The next three hours of the event included three rounds of forty-minute running clock games that were lived streamed on BallerTV and are currently available on demand. The showcase teams were coached by some of the top trainers in Indiana. The event concluded with the naming of the All-Indiana Showcase Team as voted by the event's coaches and evaluators. Team rosters, participant list, photo galleries and game box scores are all available at IGBRR.COM. For additional coverage follow the Twitter hash tag #AIS21. Following are just a few of the highlights throughout the event.

All-Indiana Showcase Teams

2022 AIS Class

Jasmine Anderson

6'0 PF Carroll

Jasmine is productive at the basket on both ends of the floor. She has some length, has the strength to compete against bigger matchups and displays a good deal of agility. She can operate out of the low post or can put together athletic attacks from the mid-post. She is active on the boards and can defend a few different types of matchups. She was once again among the more productive frontliners throughout the event.

Kate Bremer

5'11 SF Cathedral

Kate is coming off a solid junior season, 12 PPG / 6 RPG, and she had a break out spring and summer on the club circuit. She has some length, shows athleticism in her game and is comfortable working around the basket or facing up from the wing. She was productive throughout the event and showed her versatility on both ends. Her combination of size, agility and skill, along with the growth that continues in her game makes her a prospect that is picking up a lot of interest.

Keegan Kaiser

5'9 CG Floyd Central

Keegan is a multiple a multi-sport athlete that oozes with athleticism. She can handle as primary, with the ability to create her own shots with her skill, length, and agility. She is entering her fourth year of varsity play at the 4A level and has experience at a high level on the club circuit. Still a bit of hidden gem, with a tremendous amount of upside. Her athletic play on both ends stood out throughout the event.

Jesse Ledgerwood

5'5 PG Washington

Jesse is a skillful and instinctual player from the point. She displays a nice balance between facilitating and getting her own. She can handle, makes good decisions while on the move with the ball and knocks down the three consistently. Her ability to make plays on both ends stood out throughout the event, as she was named to the All-Showcase Team by the AIS coaches.

2023 AIS Class

Ashlynn Brooke

5'7 PG Pioneer

Ashlynn is just six months removed from her second knee injury comeback and incredibly displayed the same athleticism and skill that makes her one of the top prospects in the class. She gets buckets at all levels and is a crafty athletic playmaker. She dropped the day's biggest game with 31 points, and averaged 21 PPG across her three contests, and was named to the All-Indiana Showcase team. She was simply one of the top playmakers at the event throughout the day.

Abby Fleetwood

5'8 CG Indian Creek

Abby is a versatile backcourt prospect that shows a great feel for the game with the ability to facilitate and get her teammates involved while still being able to score it at a high level. A year ago, she was named to the All-Showcase Team, and in many respects her showing again this year was at that level or even better, with a pair of 13 point games.

Laila Hull

6'1 SF Zionsville

Laila is among top prospects in her class and is ranked nationally. She has length, athleticism and a versatile skill set that allows her play and defend multiple spots. She is capable of scoring it all levels in a variety of ways. She rebounds her area and is disruptive on the defensive end with her length and agility. She displayed throughout the event why she is a premier prospect in the junior class

Riley Makalusky

6'2 SF HSE

Riley is extremely long and has a skilled game from the wing. She can shoot it out to the three-point line and can put together attacks from the wing where she can finish with her length and agility. Her versatile skill set makes her a difficult matchup for most. She was productive on both ends throughout the event and was named to the All-Showcase Team by the coaching staff.

Emily Mattingly

5'10 CG Evansville Memorial

Emily has had a lot of the tools to put her among the elite prospects in her class but as she has continued to grow as a confident and consistent scorer, she has put that certified stamp on her game. She has a big strong guard frame, length and a skill set that allows her to play multiple spots. She displayed her ability throughout the event to make plays and get buckets at a high level, averaging 16 PPG, while being named to the All-Showcase Team.

Makayla Porter

5'11 SF Mishawaka Marian

Makayla is a strong, physical, and athletic presence at the basket and shows a good deal of versatility in her game. Her agility and ability to get off the floor allow her to get buckets in a variety of ways from the frontcourt, while being comfortable with the ball from the wing. She had a productive day throughout the event and was noted by the staff with games of 23, 13 & 12 points.

Renna Schwieterman

5'11 SF Jay County

Renna is strong, physical, and athletic. At the high school level and on the club circuit she is capable of doing a lot of damage around the basket with her agility and skill. However, in the showcase setting she also displays her versatility and skill with the ball away from the rim. She put together another strong showing, including games of 21 and 17 points on her way to being named to all the All-Showcase Team.

Ashlynn Shade

5'10 CG Noblesville

Ashlynn is ranked among the top prospects nationally in her class and there is not much that can be said that hasn't already. She is strong, physical, skilled guard that can get buckets at all levels in a variety of ways. Instinctual on both ends, a high motor and simply plays at a different level than most. Ashlynn had a big day with games of 27 and 22 points on her way to being selected to the All-Indiana Showcase Team.

Molly Stock

5'7 PG Homestead

Molly may not be as physically imposing or even as athletic as her matchup at times but with her motor, cerebral approach and solid skill set she is most often winning those battles. Steady, productive, and a primary handler that can be trusted to make the read and play. Once again, she was rock solid, made plays on both ends and put the ball in the bucket on her chances, including a 13 point game.

Whitney Warfel

5'9 SF Pendleton Heights

Whitney has a strong frame, a good deal of athleticism as a multiple sport athlete and a solid versatile skill set. She can operate around the basket with strength and physicality but is at her best attacking from the wing getting downhill with her aggressive attacks. She is getting healthy and can expect a breakout junior season. A bit of an under the radar prospect that coaches should keep an eye on.

2024 AIS Class

Bradie Chambers 5'8 CG Linton-Stockton

Bradie got the opportunity to pick up a 2A State championship as a frosh this past season. She is also an athletic multiple sport athlete. We first saw her late last summer and have written her up several times since. The showcase provided the backdrop for her coming out party, as she created a lot of buzz among the coaches. She made a statement with games of 21 & 16 points, on her way to being named to the All-Showcase Team.

Destini Craig 5'9 SF Fort Wayne Snider

If there was an MVP for the event Destini would have been among the handful of candidates. She has a strong frame, a skilled game from the wing, paired with a good deal of athleticism. She is handful for nearly any matchup. Her versatility was on display throughout the event with games of 21, 20, and 19 points on the day. Her production landed her a spot on the All-Showcase Team.

Lauren Foster 5'7 CG Indian Creek

Laruen is a warrior from the backcourt, she has a high motor, a strong guard from and can play with physicality or finesse. A skilled guard that displays the ability to get buckets at all levels and puts pressure on her opponent on both ends of the floor. She was recognized by coaches for her relentless motor and her willingness to be on the attack throughout the event.

Ellie Kelleher 5'9 CG Westfield

Ellie is another prospect quickly making a name for herself in the class. After getting some varsity time at the 4A level as frosh she has a solid spring and summer on the club circuit. High motor, strong and skilled guard that shows a lot of versatility and athleticism in her game. She showed she belonged among the state's elite at the showcase, which included games of 17 and 16 points.

Avery Kelley

5'6 PG Evansville Memorial

Avery has joined us for multiple events including last year's AIS. She is a quick athletic point that puts a tremendous amount of pressure on her opponent on both ends of the floor. She really stood out this year, which included her ability to score the ball with games of 16 and 15 points for her team. She was recognized for her play with her selection to the All-Showcase Team.

Olivia Nickerson

5'6 SG Twin Lakes

Olivia is considered one of the top shooters in the class and burst on the high school scene a year ago averaging over 23 PPG as a frosh. She can handle as primary when needed, shows good instincts for the action and has deep range with a quick release. She put together a solid showing at the showcase that landed her all the All-Showcase Team for her squad.

Jordyn Poole

5'6 PG Ft Wayne Snider

Jordyn is an electric playmaking point guard that is one of the top prospects in her class. She can score it at all levels, breaks down defenders with an explosive handle and makes plays from baseline to baseline. She is difficult to keep in front of you and has a high level skilled and instinctual game from the point. She was on attack throughout the day, earning herself a spot on the All-Showcase Team.

Addie Shank

6'0 PF Ft Wayne Luers

Addie is a strong and physical post with a high motor that makes her extremely productive at the basket. We were excited to see how she would fit in with the state's top prospects and her first showcase with us and she did not disappoint. She was efficient and productive on both ends with games of 16, 14 and 10 points. Coaches should start getting familiar with this young prospect as she continues to develop.

2025 AIS Class

Addison Baxter

5'7 CG Columbia City

Addison displayed her high motor and skilled backcourt game throughout the event. She competed at a high level and her energy was noted by multiple coaches. In an event with seasoned and talented guard play she matched the play of her older peers. She was the only frosh to be selected to this year's All-Tourney Team.

Leah West

6'1 PF Greensburg

Leah may have been the most dominate frosh in regard to position. It's not unusual to see post development later down the road but she displayed she was ready and willing to compete against the state's top frontliners now. She displayed confidence and versatility with the ball. She was productive and efficient, which included games of 19 & 13 points.

Meredith Tippner

5'9 CG Noblesville

Meredith's energy and willingness to compete on both ends was noted by several coaches throughout the event. She displayed a nice confidence for a frosh, was on the attack and was productive. She was a bucket getter and led all frosh in scoring average with games of 18 and 17 points.

Gabby Spink

5'7 PG Gibson Southern

Gabby is a firecracker with a skilled game from the backcourt. She was aggressive and on the attack on both ends throughout the event, which was noted by multiple coaches. She is a playmaker that can create and score in a variety of ways, which included games of 13 & 12 points.
